<https://www.durham.ac.uk/departments/academic/common-awards/policies-processes/admissions/entry-requirements/>

Decisions on admissions are based solely on the individual merits of each candidate, their suitability for the course they have applied to study, and the selection criteria appropriate to the course of study. Admissions procedures are kept under regular review to ensure compliance with this policy. All selection for admission takes place within the parameters of our Equality Policy which is published at <https://www.ssho.ac.uk/policies/>

General Criteria

1. Candidates for the Common Awards must be sponsored by the Church of England for full-time training or otherwise eligible for the Common Awards programmes under the agreement between the Church of England and the University of Durham, and have an immigration status that allows them to study in the programme.
2. Where candidates do not meet the entry requirements for a programme of study their application will be referred to the Common Awards Team at the University of Durham for decision by the Common Awards Management Board (normally by Chair's Action).

3. Ordinand students will hold a DBS check with their sponsoring Diocese. The form needs to be presented to the academic secretary on admission. Independent students who already hold a DBS check for their placement / work context in the Church of England need to present their forms to the academic secretary on admission. Independent students whose placement context will be organised by the college will need to complete an enhanced DBS check via the college in cooperation with the academic secretary. International independent students need to provide an equivalent to the DBS check for any placement / work context they operate in.

Programme Specific Criteria

Foundation Award (V60444)

Entry to this programme is flexible, depending on the student's experience, employment and education. In general, applicants – especially those with little or no employment history – are likely to have at least one A-level (Grade E or above) or equivalent. However, if an applicant (especially a mature student) does not have this academic qualification, St Stephen's House will assess other evidence of the candidate's potential to benefit from study in Theology, Ministry and Mission at level 4, for example, samples of recent academic writing or relevant work experience.

Certificate of Higher Education 120 (V60446)

Entry to this programme is flexible, depending on the student's experience, employment and education. In general, applicants – especially those with little or no employment history – would normally have at least one A-level (Grade E or above) or equivalent. However, if an applicant (especially a mature student) does not have this academic qualification, St Stephen's House will assess other evidence of the candidate's potential to benefit from study in Theology, Ministry and Mission at Certificate (HE) level, for example, samples of recent academic writing or relevant work experience. Students who have successfully completed the Foundation Award are eligible to apply to continue to the Certificate.

Diploma of Higher Education (V60447)

Entry to the Diploma is flexible, depending on the candidate's experience, employment and education. In general, applicants would normally have at least two A-levels (at Grade E or above) or equivalent qualifications. However, if an applicant (especially a mature student) does not have these academic qualifications, St Stephen's House will assess other evidence of the candidate's potential to benefit from the Diploma (HE), for example, samples of recent academic writing or relevant work experience. Students who have successfully completed the Foundation Award or Certificate HE (120) are eligible to apply to continue to the Diploma (HE).

BA in TMM (V604)

Normally entry to the BA requires at least three A-levels (Grade E or above) or equivalent. Graduates in other subjects may enter the BA programme, and students who have completed the Diploma in Theology, Ministry and Mission successfully may be admitted to the final year of the BA programme.

Grad Certificate (V60421)

Normally an upper second class Honours degree. Graduates in other subjects may enter the Graduate Certificate programme. In addition, students who do not have a degree but are able to demonstrate their ability to undertake theological study at degree level will be considered for admission. Students may be required to undertake some prior personal study before embarking on the programme to demonstrate this.

Graduate Diploma (V60422)

Normally entry to the Graduate Diploma requires an upper second class Honours degree or equivalent. Graduates in other subjects and students who have completed a Diploma (HE) in theology successfully may enter the Graduate Diploma programme. For non-theology graduates, normally students should have an upper second class honours degree. However, especially for mature students, prior professional experience will be taken into account as well as educational qualifications and other evidence of ability to benefit from the programme such as samples of recent academic writing.

Postgraduate Certificate, Diploma and MA in Theology Ministry and Mission (V60414, V60412 and V60407)

Normally an upper second class Honours degree or equivalent in a subject relevant to the proposed course of study. Normally students will need a good degree (or other level 6 qualification, such as a Graduate Diploma) in theology, although graduates (classed as first-class or 2:1 honours) in other disciplines with experience of Theology or Religious Studies to at least undergraduate Certificate level (awarded with credit or distinction, or with an overall mark of at least 60%) may also be admitted to the programme. However, especially for mature students, prior professional experience may be taken into account. Given its professional development orientation, students are likely to be preparing for a ministerial or related vocation or be actively engaged in such a profession.

MA in Church Law (V62607)

Normally an upper second class Honours degree or equivalent in a subject relevant to the proposed course of study. Normally students will need a good degree (or other level 6 qualification, such as a Graduate Diploma) in theology, although graduates (classed as first-class or 2:1 honours) in other disciplines with experience of Theology or Religious Studies to at least undergraduate Certificate level (awarded with credit or distinction, or with an overall mark of at least 60%) may also be admitted to the programme. However, especially for mature students, prior professional experience may be taken into account. Students are likely to be preparing for a ministerial or related vocation or be actively engaged in such a profession.

Post Graduate Diploma and MA in Worship and Liturgical Studies (V62112 and V62107)

The admissions requirement for the PGDip and MA in Worship and Liturgical Studies is normally an upper second-class Honours degree or equivalent in a subject relevant to the proposed course of study. Normally students will need a good degree (or other level 6 qualification, such as a Graduate Diploma) in theology, although graduates (classed as first-class or 2:1 honours) in other disciplines with experience of Theology or Religious Studies to at least undergraduate Certificate level (awarded with credit or distinction, or with an overall mark of at least 60%) may also be admitted to the programme. For candidates from international universities with non-UK qualifications, equivalent level of an upper 2:1 in line with the CA NARIC licence applies. Given its professional development orientation, students are likely to be preparing for a ministerial or related vocation or be actively engaged in such a profession. In general, up to a maximum of 60 credits of accredited prior learning may be granted to students who have evidence of, or can demonstrate learning that fulfils, the relevant learning outcomes of the Master's programme (by completing a portfolio of work, for example).

Staff Training

Normally St Stephen's staff involved in interviewing will have training provided by the Oxford Learning Institute and/or have been mentored by the Senior Tutor.

Review

The operation of this policy will be kept under review in the first instance through reporting of its operation to regular Staff Meetings, and the termly Common Awards Management Committee. The results of such discussions will be included in the Annual Self Evaluation Process.

Complaints

Following the University of Durham, this policy defines a complaint as 'specific concern regarding a procedural error, irregularity or mal-administration in admissions policies or procedures.' An appeal is defined as a request by an unsuccessful applicant for a formal review of the outcome of an admissions decision. Appeals will not normally be considered.

Candidates who have an admissions complaint should raise it as soon as possible and normally within 28 days after the event in the first instance to the Course Director for the Common Awards. If the complaint is made in writing, the Course Director will acknowledge it within five working days, and attempt an informal resolution.

If informal mechanisms do not produce a resolution, the complaint should be made in writing to the Vice-Principal (or Senior Tutor) who will acknowledge it in writing within 5 working days, institute a formal investigation, and report the decision within 28 working days after the acknowledgement.

If the complainant remains dissatisfied, he or she has a right to request a review by the University by contacting the Common Awards Team common.awards@durham.ac.uk The Office of the Independent Adjudicator does not consider complaints about admissions.
